

The Snow Must Go On

Contributed by Simon
Monday, 24 March 2008

So much for my weatherforecasting abilities. We had even more snow today than the previous two days, but the relays still went ahead with enthusiastic competitors setting off into the snowy wilds of Eridge Old Park.

Norwegian clubs took the main honours, with Kristiansand OK winning the JK Trophy and Wing winning the Women's Trophy.

Full results are now available. RouteGadget will follow soon.